Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closest prior art of record (Morris, U.S. Patent No. 6,694,359) does not teach nor suggest in detail a system comprising:

a network device including a first memory to store hardware and software version numbers for the network device in predetermined memory location the network device furthering including a physical read port coupled to the first memory said physical port including a set of one or more signals defining a physical interface and a protocol for reading said hardware and software version numbers data from the predetermined memory location independently of any network protocols; and data-gathering circuitry physically separate from but compatible with said read port and programmed to automatically read said data hardware and software version numbers from the predetermined memory location using the protocol, said automatic reading from the predetermined memory location further programmed to occur in response to detachably coupling the data-gathering circuitry to the network device and independently of any manual inputs over any human interface devices for either the data-gathering circuitry or the network device... in combination with all the elements of each independent claim as argued by Applicant (see pages 16-19 of applicant's argument dated 05/25/2006 as well as the enabling portions of Applicant's specification, pages 2-5). So as indicated by the above statements, Applicant's arguments have been considered persuasive, in light of the claim limitations, the enabling portions of the specification, as well as the preferred embodiment of the claimed invention.

Art Unit: 2143

2. The dependent claims further limit the independent claims and are considered allowable on the same basis as the independent claims as well as for the further limitations set forth.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Claims 1-14, and 16-63 are allowed. Renumbered 1-62.
